

EXETER-CHANGE.

73

The following is a CATALOGUE
Of PART of the CAPITAL COLLECTION of
BIRDS AND BEASTS

NOW EXHIBITING at the GRAND MENAGERIE,
in the GREAT ROOM, as above:

A Royal Bengal Striped TYGER and TYGRESS, being the First ever exhibited at the above Place, much superior to any of the Kind in this Kingdom.—The Tygress was landed from the Duckingfield-Hall Indiaman, on the 14th of September, 1796.

A ravenous Hunting TYGER, from Bengal.

An Asiatic PANTHER, from ditto.

A beautiful Spotted LEOPARD, from Africa.

A ravenous Laughing HYENA.

A wonderful POLAR or SEA LION; an amphibious Animal, which cannot live without being washed with Water every Day.

A JACKALL, or Lion's Provider.

A ravenous WOLF, from Siberia, in Russia.

A beautiful ANTELOPE, from Asia.

A large TYGER CAT; and a Muscovy or Civet Cat.

A large WILD MAN of the Woods, that walks upright, and is so extremely sagacious as to understand every Word the Keeper says to him.

A Long-armed BABOON; and a curious APE, from Ape's-Hill, in Barbary.

A stupendous OSTRICH, Nine Feet high, from the Coast of Barbary.

A PELICAN of the Wilderness,—a Bird so remarkable as to be mentioned in Sacred History, that feeds it's Young ones with it's own Blood.

A Royal CROWN CRANE, or Bird of Paradise.

Two Condor Minor VULTURES. very rare and scarce.

An Imperial VULTURE, the largest ever seen in this Kingdom.

A Golden EAGLE, from Santa Cruz; and a Horned OWL, from Bohemia.

And a Variety of other Animals and Birds, too numerous to insert.

Admittance is. each Person.

In an adjoining APARTMENT, is

A wonderful MALE ELEPHANT, which, although the largest Animal in the Creation, is so sagacious and tractable, as to be obedient to every Command of it's Keeper; and is so exceedingly tame, that Children frequently ride on it's Back with the greatest Safety, as the Den is well constructed for that Purpose.—Admittance is. each Person.

In an Apartment UNDER the GREAT ROOM, is to be Seen from Obscurity, by

A curious Apparatus, Variety of Pleasing Perspectives and Public Animation, far excelling any thing of the Kind yet invented.

Admission One Shilling each Person, or the Three Exhibitions for Half-a-Crown.

N. B. Foreign Birds and Beasts bought, sold, or exchanged, by G. PIDCOCK, as above.